

Windermere Welcomes Christa O'Brien to their La Quinta Main Office

For Immediate Release:

Windermere Real Estate Southern California is pleased to welcome Christa O'Brien to their Windermere La Quinta Main Office located at 47-250 Washington Street. Christa brings with her an abundance of energy and optimism that Windermere agents embody.

Christa specializes in La Quinta, Rancho Mirage, Indian Wells, & Palm Desert. Her professionalism and attention to detail is emulated in her actions and astute attention to detail. Christa has also been recognized by her clients as understanding the potential utility of space, and how it can be best used to fulfill its design and purpose. Described as warm, friendly, helpful, professional, and willing to go to every possible length for her clients, Christa also is a local community volunteer for the MS Walk of the Desert, and regular supporter to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

Christa's strong interest in architectural detail and design are characteristics which complement her real estate knowledge and career. One of the many reasons she wanted to work with Windermere are the core values of the company such as, 'giving back to the community' and 'immeasurable customer service' coincide with values that she shares and believes in.

Her favorite aspects of real estate are an innate understanding and interest in architecture, design and use of space for functionality. Sandy Beakey, La Quinta Managing Broker, noted, "We are so excited to welcome Christa to our La Quinta family. Christa brings lots of enthusiasm wherever she goes and her work ethic will go a long way towards making her a successful agent with Windermere, as well as throughout the desert."
